

Some after 418, the sons of Paulinus of Pella must have also tried to embark on a "Gothic" career: they too considered themselves the King's friends. Unfortunately the sons died too soon to help their imprisoned father, who had undoubtedly compromised himself.

418

1912 Dates J-BK

417-418 reign

St. ZOSIMUS was 41st Pontiff
He succeeded Innocent I

the Gothic Army that was rebtled in 418 was composed of TERVINGIAN - VÆSIAN, GREUTUNGIAN - OSTROGOTHIC, And originally non-Gothic elements now more or less Gothicized

418AD

Franks settle in parts of Gaul

Constantine III was prime mover in granting local government to Saul.

418-451

THEODERID = THEODORIC I

Galla Placidia was his mother
ATHALF was his father

418

The emperor decided to settle the federate Goths in AQUITAIN

418

Valia, the king of the Sothos, died.

The Toulousean kingdom of the Visigoths made Toulouse the center of their dominion

Summer
418

Valia was permitted to conclude his Spanish summer campaign of 418, but Constantius "recalled" the Goths to Gaul. The Gothic federates were assigned to the valley of the Garonne "from Toulouse to Bordeaux" and were allotted in addition the Atlantic coastal strip extending from Les Landes and the foothills of the Pyrenees in the south just barely to the fore in the north. The Goths were excluded from the Mediterranean coast

After Valia died Theoderic succeeded him.

Valia had conducted the Spanish war as federate king of Rome.

418

Not long after 418, the traditional Gallic customs were no longer sufficient to regulate all the problems posed by Goths and Romans living side by side

418-451

Theoderic reigned from 418-451

Theoderic (called Theodoric I, the "younger Balthe") gained the VISIGOTHIC kingdom.

He had six sons: ^①THORISMOND - THORISMOND;

② THEODORIC II (who is attested as grandson of Alaric I; ③ FLIDERIC ④ EURIC ⑤ RETEMERIS - RICIMER and ⑥ HIMNERITH. The first 4 came to power. The last 2 known by names only. There was also two daughters of Theoderic. One married to the Vandal Historic in 429. The other became the wife of the Swiss King REGIHAR in 449

The elder daughter was returned to her father's estate (named #29), ~~the~~ mother left offspring - thousand children. Only in case of EURIC do we know of male offspring, the son and successor Alaric II. There married RAGNVAHLD, daughter of an unknown
king

418-451

Theoderid (= Theodoric I)
was king of Visigoths
He was son of ALARIC I.

418, July 19

First report of a comet discovered during a solar eclipse, seen by the historian PHILOSTORGUS
in Asia Minor

Apr 17, 418

the general assembly of the seven southern Gallic provinces was reestablished by imperial decree. the praetorian prefect of Gaul, whose seat had recently been moved to ARLES, had asked for the reestablishment of the assembly. and gained the support of Constantius

418

Theoderic became king of the Goths, after Valia.
He was mini-hor of ALARIC I

The Gothic army that settled in southern Scandinavia had the following composition:
TERVINGIAN - VESIAN and GREUTUNGIAN
① STROBOTIC tribal elements; non-Gothic groups that had been Gothicized to varying degrees, among them ALANS, BESSI from Thrace, GALINDI from the Baltic Sea, VARNI, probably also HERULI, and maybe even Saxons from the

Lois & Suzanne Niles. Among the elements of our - rather vague - we must also list the behavior from the attainment of ~~our~~ ^{our} ~~the~~
the delirium and the lack, the formation, Tasmania, and Governor Selous of the last Romer. Notice degradation

418

The new Vesigoths : Regnum Tolosanum

Settlement in Gaul

418 to 451

The new Visigoths : Regnum Tolosanum

Theoderic - killed in battle against the Huns in the CATALAUNIAN Fields

418-451

Theodoric I, king of the Visigoths